"NH 6647 4571. Chapel Yard."(1) "Chapel Yard (Burial Ground). Applies to a large burying ground in Chapel Street. It was the yard of the chapel which belonged to a Franciscan, or as the old Stat. Account maintains Dominican Monastery, established here in the reign of Alexander II. At present there is not the slightest vestige remaining of either of these two objects - Cromwell having removed every stone of them for building of a citadel near the mouth of the river, neither can their site be pointed out by any of the inhabitants of the town."(2)(3) "St.Mary's Chapel situated within the Chapel Yard."(4) "In a deed of 1359 certain lands were gifted to the chapel at Inverness of the blessed Virgin Mary."(5) "NH 6647 4571. Glebe Burial Ground."(6) " 'Chapel Yard' (Burial ground) is still in use, but no trace of St.Mary's Chapel was found."(OSFI:WDJ: 30.3.1960)
