

SOUTH YARROW BROCH

Near Wick

Ⓢ Overall Runic Essence SPIRITUAL WARRIOR

- 3) Warrior
- 2) Movement
- 1) Beginning

- 1) Beginning
- 2) Movement
- 3) Warrior

and 18-20 feet high...its excavation has disclosed the fact that it is a true broch, surrounded by buildings of a truly remarkable character...

Ground-Plan of the Broch of Yarhouse, Caithness.
 A, Entrance Passage to Round Tower and its out-buildings.
 B, Round Tower.
 C, D, E, F, G, H, Out-buildings of Round Tower.

N.D. 342-CCCI

The characteristic of northern have that k

 The r same
 had a
 by thi
 can s

This
 gone
 Their
 sites

4: Alex
 exca
 potte
 been
 of th Alth
 loca
 were 5,80
 year
 wou
 peop

and 18-20 feet high...its excavation has disclosed the fact that it is a true broch, surrounded by buildings of a truly remarkable character..."

Ground-Plan of the Broch of Yarhouse, Caithness.
A, Entrance Passage to Round Tower and its out-buildings.
B, Round Tower.
C, D, E, F, G, H, Out-buildings of Round Tower.

ND. Y. 1200001

Brochs are circular towers, characteristic of northern and western Scotland, and date to the later Iron Age (from about 200 BC to 200 AD). The massive, windowless, drystone walls contained internal have that li

The r
same
had a
by th
can s

This
gone
Thei
sites

4: Ale:
exca
pott
beer
of th Alth
loca
wer
5,8C
year
wou
peo]

The
entri
that
the

LOCH OF YARROWS,
NEAR THRUMSTER.

D. A. H. Duff

H.M. OFFICE
OF WORKS
1935.