Detailed description, further notes, observations – continued on next page

Remains of 3 dwellings plus one other structure (possibly a cultivation/kale yard). All buildings are grouped in a position closer to the shore and slightly north-west of the known settlement at Swordle Chorrach which includes Coldstream Cottage.

House A: 9m x5m long axis orientated approx. east/west, rounded ends to building corners, remains of a dividing wall across its' width.

House B: 11m x 5m long axis orientated approx. north/south, again with rounded corners and evidence of a dividing wall.

House C: 9.5m x 5.5m long axis approx east/west, rounded corners (continued below)
